

THOMAS & RICHARD SHARPLES CHARITY

The Thomas and Richard Sharples charity was founded in the 1920s with the purpose of providing financial assistance to elderly people with the surname SHARPLES or HESMONDHALGH.

This year, in addition to supporting the elderly, we have decided to focus on helping undergraduate students bearing either surname and we have financial assistance available to assist with fees, accommodation, books etc. for up to 3 years.

Applications must be submitted by 31st August for the following academic year. For successful applicants, the award will be made in two equal payments by bank transfer; the first in January and the second in May. Note, payment for subsequent years will be dependent on the previous years performance as evidenced by the Student Record from the University. Students will also be required to provide an update to the Trustees on how they used / benefited from the grant.

The Charity has a limited number of student bursaries to offer each year. The scheme and the award of student grants as part of this scheme are solely at the discretion of the Trustees.

Application Instructions

Applicants must provide proof of name and the University course onto which they have been accepted.

- All first-time applicants must supply a copy of their birth or adoption certificate as proof of name. Married or widowed women must also provide a copy of their marriage certificate.
- All first-time applicants must supply a copy of their University course acceptance letter.

The Trustees, or their agent will contact applicants directly should any additional supporting evidence be required.

The student's application must be certified by a parent or legal guardian. The certifier may be contacted by the Trustees regarding the application.

Please ensure that all questions are answered in full and all supporting documentation is included with the application. Applications cannot be accepted if they are incomplete.

Applications, together with the supporting documentation, should be sent to:-
